Elizabeth Ann Tonn Wolfe was born on July 10, 1942 in Conroe, Texas to Alfred August and Carrie Bell (Dunk) Tonn. The Tonn family traveled many parts of Texas with Tonn Construction building roads. She graduated from Giddings High School in 1960 and then went to Blinn College briefly before settling into working. In 1968 she met Charles R. Wolfe and moved to San Antonio to be with him. She began working at Hemsfair working at the Golden Garter Saloon. After their marriage they continued to move around Texas and Oklahoma planting grass along the highways until 1972 when they made their home in Houston. They opened Erosion Control where Betty ran the office while Charles managed the field crews. After Charles death in 2006, Betty took on the slow task of closing the business. They were avid Houston Oiler football fans and also supported the Astros and the Houston Livestock Association. They attended Super Bowl VIII at Rice Stadium in 1974. She also supported the Houston Texans and Houston Rockets.

Along with Betty's entrepreneurial spirit she filled her spare time antiquing, caring for her cats, having lunch with her good friend Yvette, and talking on the phone with her many friends. She was a collector and enjoyed decorating her home and finding inspiration from watching HGTV. She is remembered for her incredible giving heart and love for animals. Her calm demeanor and acceptance of others is what made her such a wonderful woman.

Elizabeth Ann passed away during the early hours of July 11, 2019 after a brief illness.

I had the pleasure of knowing one of the kindest and loving person I've ever know. She was our neighbor and my mothers best friend for over 44 years. I will always remember her as the most generous and kind person I have ever known. I love you Betty and have a hard time believing you are gone.

Our deepest sympathies to the Tonn and Wolfe families. Betty was a part of our lives for the past forty five years. I have so many treasured childhood and adult memories of her. From her and Charles watching me perform during football games, attending Oiler's games, the Houston Rodeo and most recent years, family celebrations. She always had an ear to listen, loved finding a treasure, baking and shared my love of decorating for the holidays. We will always remember her for her kind spirit and sweet smile. We will miss her dearly. We love you Betty.
