Barbara Reimers Jaeger was born on September 5, 1938, in Paige, Texas, the daughter of Wilhelm Reinhardt Reimers and Leora Louise (Kiel) Reimers. She was baptized in Paige, Texas and confirmed in Hempstead, Texas. Barbara graduated from Giddings High School in 1956 and began working at Nutrena Feeds in Giddings. She was united in marriage with Alois Jaeger on September 1, 1963 at Martin Luther Lutheran Church in Giddings. Shortly after, she began working alongside her husband as secretary at Jaeger's Inc. in Giddings. Barbara was an active member of Martin Luther Lutheran Church in Giddings where she sang in the choir, taught Sunday school, was a member of the women's organization, and served on the Altar Guild. She was a member and served as an officer of the Lee County Heritage Society. She enjoyed working in her yard, traveling, walking trips, cooking, and baking. Her greatest joy was spending time with her family. Her grandkids fondly remember her Wednesday night suppers and her Sunday lunches after church. A much-requested meal consisted of chicken strips with sweet rice.

“ My dear friends, Alois, Kim, Jim, and Family Barbara and I we're friends for many years I loved her dry wit, compassion and her great love of family. I to remember Sunday dinners after church. Her chicken strips, her macaroni and cheese and her apple pies but mostly she was a sweet Christian sister and she truly truly loved her husband. I know you I'll be in heaven one day together again and there will be only joy no more sadness our tears most sincerely Lavonne Morrow
