“ Calvin was always there to help someone out when they needed it, even if he had to go out of his way to do it , he would. Calvin and Sarah (bubba) rescued me from my abusive ex in the middle of the night , drove out into the country with very little gas, knowing the situation ,the risk , and picked me up , took me to a hotel and then took me into their home , when others had turned their backs on me. I'll never forget that act of kindness and at that time it made me realize that there was hope, there was light at the end of the tunnel. I had friends who really cared , and who didn't want anything in return for it. I got my life together within those next few months and haven't turned back again in almost 3 and a half years now . Calvin will be missed very much , and Sarah and the kids are in my prayers daily .
