“ So sorry for your loss! Mrs. Blackmon was such a sweet lady! I remember being at the bus barn and her coming in smiling! She had a wonderful laugh that was infectious! She always took the time to sit and visit with us, no matter how tired she was! She will be dearly missed!

“ I went to visit Aunt Sissy and Uncle Charlie with my Daddy. I was about 5 or 6. They were building their house. I was very shy. Aunt Sissy grab me and swung me around and said another red head in house. She said let leave the boys we went to the store and loaded up on candy and she bought me my 1st Big Red soda. I never ever had that much candy before... big red was heavenly. After that every time we saw each other we bought each other a big red and candy. I love you

“ She welcomed me into her family with open arms the first time she laid eyes on me. We spent many happy hours junking, gossiping and planning how we were going to spend our time together after we bought our place right across the lake. Sadly, just as we got our first acre cleared she suffered a devastating event and afterwards had no memories of any of her children much less me and our plans. I have missed her wicked sense of humor and the way she would rare back and laugh so hard she couldn't get he breath. Her spirit will be with me always and I'm sure she is now watching over all of her loved ones. I look forward to seeing her again in the hereafter when her eyes will recognize me. Rest in piece Momma. I'll be talking to you in my dreams and prayers.
