“ I met Lois at the RNC in Austin - It was a joy to see her smile, to sing with her and to talk with her - She was a beloved mother as evidenced by the constant and devoted care given to her by her children who I was privileged also to meet - I just learned of Lois' passing yesterday and wept, but also rejoiced for her now she's Home and free to take care of her children again, which is what all mothers long to be able to do- Godspeed Lois - You are missed - Thank you so much for the gifts you gave to me - Love - Nora Jeffrey
