“ Adil & Trinity were my next-door neighbors for the past six years and we grew very close. When one of us was feeling down or depressed, we would sit on the porch either his or mine, and talk for hours. We always managed to make each other feel better. I watched as he transformed into one of the most amazing daddies I have ever seen. His love for Trinity was beyond measure. She became a real joy to me as well. I couldn't have loved her more if she was one of my own, I still cannot believe that my friend is gone. I keep hoping I wake up from this dream, but I do find comfort in knowing that he is with our Lord and Savior. Now there are no words to describe how much he will be missed. He will never be forgotten. Rest in peace, my dear friend.

“ Adil Babin was the best father I have ever met in my lifetime. His life was absolutely dedicated to his daughter, who he loved more than anything else in this world. He was a friend to me when no one was. He would always tell me, " Michael your gonna miss out on the good things in life if you don't figure out how to do things differently. He was right about it too. I had to loose my leg before I realized my life was slipping away. Just before he passed we went to lunch. We spent the majority of the lunch discussing my accident , and how it was going to effect my life, as well as, his life and the things he was concerned about when it came to Trinity. Adil Babin would stop everything he was doing, and I mean no matter what if his daughter called and asked for him. I am a better man and person for knowing him. This world is a little less bright because he is gone. I know he is shining down watching, because he will never leave his daughters side, not even in death. He will be there in spirit every step of the way. To His Step Father and Mother I am sorry for your loss, there are no words I can speak which will make you feel any better about the loss of your son. Please know that my prayers are with You and his daughter Trinity, and that God has him now. He has no more stress, he isn't hurting inside and toiling over anything anymore. He will be greatly missed

“ I remember Adil and Zena used to come to California in the summer and I used to be so excited to see them every year! We had some fun summers- Vegas, magic mountain, Nintendo, to all the sleepovers- we always had fun. He was always so fun and always was family to me! I have so many good and fun memories of us together! Adil you will be missed! I love you. Rest in peace ❤️

“ I will never forget the first time I met Adil. I was almost 9 months pregnant with Ashlie and we went to his grandparents. He was jumping on a trampoline and he got down and ran over and hugged me like he had known me forever. He always gave the most amazing hugs. We will miss you so much . RIP our dear friend.
Love you forever.
