

Aileen Janice Faske

June 8, 1929 - December 25, 2013

Heaven's Gain is our Loss. Aileen Janice Iselt was born on June 8, 1929 in Fedor, TX at home to Alvin and Louise Rose (nee Noack) Iselt. On early Christmas morning, December 25, 2013 at the age of 84, she joined our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Services will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, December 29, 2013 at Ebenezer Lutheran Church in Manheim, Texas with Pastor Herb Keistman officiating. Burial will follow in the Ebenezer Lutheran Church Cemetery. Visitation will be held on Friday, December 27, 2013 from 1:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m., Saturday, December 28, 2013 from 7:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. and on Sunday, December 29, 2013 from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home in Giddings. The family will be present for visitation Saturday evening from 4:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. She was baptized at Trinity Lutheran Church in Fedor by Rev. Adolf Michalk on June 20, 1929 and confirmed at Christ Lutheran Church in Loebau by Rev. Herbert Hartfield on March 29, 1942. She attended school at Kalmbach School for grades 1-5 and transferred to Christ Lutheran schools in Loebau while living with her Grandpa Iselt and Uncle Louie & Aunt Freda. Aileen was united in marriage to Bernhard Christian Faske on January 9, 1949 at St. James Lutheran Church in Lexington, TX by Rev. Stroebel and then had their reception at her parent's home. On their 50th anniversary, they received congratulations from then Texas Governor George W.H. Bush and President Bill Clinton. Their union was blessed with one daughter, Pauline, and two sons, August & Benhard. Aileen was a current member of Ebenezer Lutheran Church in Manheim, TX. After school, she moved to Austin to work for Dr. Gilbert being his maid and nanny to his children. Once she married, she moved to Manheim and worked with her husband many years doing peanut farming and running the Faske General Store at the current location where they lived. She also worked at Invader Boat Factory in upholstery seat final assembly and Droemer Furniture Industries. She loved baking cookies, coffee cakes, cheese cakes and tapioca pudding along with gardening flowers and vegetables and playing "42" dominoes game. She also enjoyed collecting angels, fishing and was always interested in what her grand and great-grandchildren were doing. She even taught her only grandson, Chris, and Mike York, how to make noodles. Each night you could find her in front of the TV watching her favorite show, Wheel of Fortune. Aileen is preceded in death by her husband, Bernhard Faske; her parents, Alvin & Louise Rose (nee Noack) Iselt, sister, Ruby Sanders and brothers, Elton Iselt and Ferman Iselt. Aileen is survived by her children and their spouses: Pauline & Jerry Falke of Fedor, August & Carolyn Faske of Austin and Benhard & Shirley Faske of Austin; four grandchildren and their spouses: Chris & Karah Falke of Fedor, Carrie & Brad Mason of Kennewick, WA, Melinda & Willie McGlaun of Buda, and Cammie & Paul Kelly of Austin; three great-grandchildren plus one on the way: Colton McGlaun of Buda, Hailey Mason of Kennewick, WA, and Lorelei Howard of Fedor; Two Sisters: Marvella Symank of Giddings and Anita Proske of Stonewall along with several nieces and nephews. Serving as pallbearers were Chris Falke, Willie McGlaun, Paul Kelly, Michael York, Brad Mason, Darvin Lehmann and Clarence Melcher. Honorary pallbearers were granddaughters Melinda McGlaun, Karah Falke, Cammie Kelly and Carrie Mason and great-grandkids Colton McGlaun, Hailey Mason and Lorelei Howard. Memorials may be made to Ebenezer Lutheran Church or the charity of your choice.
