“ So sorry for your loss. Albert was unstoppable. In grade school, he was a very determined student with his typewriter. He could go anywhere with his wheelchair even the rough pasture where the Winchester Picnic was held years ago. He will be missed.

Albert and I were distant cousins and we met in college in the early '70's. We both loved to tease each other, and he always had a little gleam in his eye along with a big grin. I miss him.
