

Alfred Brooks Beckham

November 27, 1933 - May 25, 2018

Memorial services for Alfred Beckham, 84, of Paige, Texas are scheduled for 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 7, 2018 at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home in Giddings with Pastor Clint Palmer officiating.

Alfred Brooks Beckham began his life on November 27th, 1933, and entered into his eternal rest on May 25th, 2018.

Alfred was born in San Antonio, Texas, and was a second generation brick mason. His skills brought him numerous opportunities to lay brick on countless numbers of houses, as well as skyscrapers, million dollar mansions in Colorado, and the LBJ Presidential Library and State Capital building in Austin. His creative labors also included stone fireplaces, elaborate mailboxes and swimming pools, and complex brick walkways. At one point, Alfred and his brothers, Jimmy and AJ, were in business together. As a hobby Alfred used his artistic ability to create hundreds of intricate tile pictures.

Alfred is preceded in death by his parents, Lennie and Nellie Beckham, a younger brother, Billy Ray, and his loving wife of 58 years, Joann Puckett Beckham.

He is survived by his two daughters, Debi Palmer and her husband Clint, and Denise Santella and her husband Mark.

Also surviving are Alfred's two sisters, Fay Brady and her husband Cecil, and Joan Imel, along with two brothers Jimmy and AJ Beckham.

Alfred also leaves a very proud legacy of six grandchildren, Lee, Seth and Lucas Palmer, and Jordan, Joshua and Noah Santella, nine great-grandchildren, and an abundance of nieces and nephews, as well as his beloved dog, Princess.
