

Alvin Clement Machan

December 19, 1928 - July 21, 2016

A private family graveside service for Alvin C. (Ace) Machan, 87, of Caldwell, was held Saturday, July 23, 2016, with Brother Rick Mitchell officiating. Burial followed at the New Tabor Cemetery.

Mr. Machan died on Thursday, July 21, 2016. He was born on December 19, 1928 to John Jerry Machan and Lydia Ann Hovorak Machan. At an early age, Alvin accepted Jesus Christ as his saviour and Lord.

Ace attended several country schools and Caldwell High School where he dropped out early.

He worked at different jobs. He worked for the food service department at Texas A&M University.

Later Ace drove dump trucks before being employed by the Texas Highway Department. While working there, what made his day (or night) was getting up at 2 a.m. during an ice storm to help put sand on bridges and steep hills.

He also helped his brother on the family ranch. Ace enjoyed having his neighbor and friend, Hubert Loehr, come and play dominoes several nights a week.

Ace liked bird watching, especially woodpeckers. He also enjoyed watching the many varied butterflies in the flower garden.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his brothers and sisters-in-law, Frank and Stacy Paul Machan, Johnnie and Sophie Matcek Machan, and Edward H. Machan, his sisters and brothers-in-law, Lillie and Steve Prazak and Lydia and Don Campbell, his nephews, Glenn Machan, Jack Roscher and Duane Rowell.

He is survived by his brothers, Robert J. Machan and Alton D. Machan, his nephews, Don Campbell and wife, Dessie, and Dr. Clinton Machan and wife, Virginia (Ginny) Brown Machan, his nieces, Nelda Campbell Roscher and Janice Rowell Nelson and husband, Fred, and several great-nephews and great-nieces, and his cousins, Frank Hejl, Josephine Hovorak Sobotik, and Lillian Odstrcil Williams, all of Burleson County, and Margaret Zawadzke of Cameron.

Funeral arrangements by Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home of Caldwell.

Cemetery Details

New Tabor Cemetery

CR 166
Caldwell, TX

Tribute Wall

JN

“ Ace was a good and caring man. He will be missed. Many Prayers and Thanks go out to the Machan Family. ”

Janice Machan Nelson - July 25, 2016 at 08:43 AM