

Amelia Pargac Wearden

February 9, 1940 - October 2, 2021

Amelia (Amy) Josephine Wearden, 81, of Caldwell, Texas passed away on Saturday, October 2, 2021. A public visitation will be held at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home Chapel on Wednesday, October 6th from 5:00 – 7:00 PM with a rosary beginning at 7:00PM. A funeral mass will begin at 10:00 AM, Thursday, October 7th at St. Mary's Catholic Church followed by interment at St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery, Caldwell, Texas.

Amy was born in Bellville, Texas to Leon Pargac, Sr. and Gardina Margaret Wondrash on February 9, 1940. She worked for Burleson County Hospital District in Caldwell until she retired in 2017. Amy was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Caldwell and a religious education instructor there for many years.

Amy loved reading mystery novels and painting oil paintings. Arts, crafts and volunteering were events that she enjoyed, but most of all she loved to help people. She always took special interest in the people she met, carefully listening to them and offering help when needed. She loved serving others. Amy blessed so many with her kindness, and her sweet spirit will live on forever in our hearts.

Amy is preceded in death by her parents, Leon Pargac, Sr. and Gardina Margaret Wondrash, and her infant son, Joseph.

She is survived by her husband, Glen Wearden; two daughters, Judy Ahrens and her husband Keith of Deanville, Texas and Mary Beirne and her husband Martin Beirne; one grandson, Douglas Beirne of Houston; one son, Glen Wearden, Jr. of Austin, as well as siblings, Leon Pargac, Jr., Tom Pargac, Pat Wiederhold and her husband Mike, and Margaret Tietjen and her husband Tim.

“ We are so very sorry to learn of Amelia's passing. My mother, Lou-Ida Marsh, asked me to say, "... she was one of my dearest students in 1957-58... and I was so blessed to teach both Mary and Glenn, Jr., in the 1980s. May God bless your dear hearts as you remember this wonderful lady." We are both thinking of you with prayers and love. Lou-Ida and Mollie Marsh.

“ I am very sorry to hear of Amelia's passing. My heartfelt sympathy to you all. I was a volunteer at the hospital and therefore, saw Amelia quit a bit. She was also a "friend" of the volunteers all of the years I knew her, and she was indeed a friend to us all and supported us gladly. She will be missed. Kay Whaley

“ I'm so sorry to learn of the passing of Amelia. My sincere sympathy to all of her family. I was looking forward to having her as a close neighbor in the pretty home set up for her to enjoy. Sadly that was not to be. God's Blessings for peace and comfort for you all as you grieve her passing.
