“ Such a classy lady with a generous heart. She could take the most ordinary object and turn it into a beautiful piece of art! She had such an eye for potential in people and what they were capable of. I can only imagine her now visiting with my Jenny and talking about those days of raising our teenagers.

I am thankful she was in my life. She brought color and grace into the lives of all of us who knew her.

I pray comfort and peace to Will, Kyle, Kent and Rebecca and their families. The comfort of knowing that this is but a temporary separation because of the promise of Jesus himself that He has a mansion for His children. Don't you know Andrea is decorating hers!!

Our love and prayers are with each of you as we celebrate Andrea's life.
