

Anita Amanda Collins

December 10, 1922 - December 2, 2018

A private family memorial service for Anita Collins, 96, of West Point, Texas will be held at a later date.

Anita Amanda (Schueler) Collins was born on December 10, 1922 in Paige, Texas to Emil and Ida (Dagerath) Schueler. She was baptized on December 24, 1922 at Ebenezer Lutheran Church in Manheim, Texas by Rev. C.W. Rische and confirmed on April 5, 1936 at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Giddings, Texas by Rev. G.W. Fischer. Her confirmation verse was Hebrews 13:5, "Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, because God has said, "Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you." Anita married Reginald Collins on February 20, 1946 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Houston. They were blessed with four children - Regina, Sharyn, Debra, and Rodney. During WWII, Anita worked as a seamstress for Bemis Brothers Bag Company in Houston. She was a member of the Ladies Aid at St. John's Lutheran Church in Cypress, Texas. Anita loved hunting for arrowheads on her family farm in Lee County. She was a loving mother and grandmother who brought much joy to her family. Her faith and devotion to Christ her Savior also influenced and strengthened her family. She taught them to put trust and confidence in Him. Anita enjoyed cooking, baking, gardening and the company of her family. She always made them feel welcomed and safe and encouraged them to be themselves.

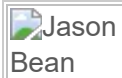

Anita passed away Sunday, December 2, 2018 at St. Mark's Medical Center in La Grange, Texas.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Emil and Ida Schueler; husband, Reginald Collins; two sisters, Elsie Schueler and Gladys Daniels; grandson, Troy Kirkpatrick; niece, Cheryl Latshaw and two nephews, Duke Daniels and Mark Daniels.

Anita is survived by her four children, Regina Gottselig of Houston, Sharyn Lueker and husband Carl of West Point, Debra Smith and husband Randy of Lincoln, and Rod Collins and wife Mary of Tomball; 10 grandchildren, Tracy Chaponis of Houston, Kirk Buchner and wife Wendy of Wimberly, Andy Lueker and wife Georgette of Colorado, Nette Werling and husband Kevin of San Antonio, Kasey Birnbaum and husband Willie of Lincoln, Sam Lueker of Colorado, Angie Boutureira and husband Dan of New Jersey, Cody Collins of Tomball, Lindsey Collins of Tomball and Kelley Collins of Tomball; 14 great grandchildren and one great, great grandchild as well as numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and extended family.

Memorials may be made to Lutheran World Relief, P.O. Box 17061, Baltimore, MD 21297-1061 or to the charity of one's choice.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Anita later in life through her granddaughter Tracy. We were blessed to have her in our home as her health began to fail and Tracy was her caregiver. I relish the conversations with her and watching her with her great great grandson Chandler who called her "Great Great" and sneaking her white chocolates. Rest in Peace Woman.
