“ My condolences to the family of Anitra. I have so many good memories of working for her at Mapco in LaVergne, TN. She was the best boss and became a great friend. We lost touch over the years and hate I didn't get to see her one time when she came back to TN to visit. She will be missed. RIP Anitra, heaven definitely received a sweet angel!

“ Anitra and I met at Seton Heart and Specialty Care Hospital in Austin. Her brother Terry (my new ❤️ brother) was contemplating receiving an L.V.A.D., a mechanical device to assist the pumping of his heart. She was his younger sister but had a big sister voice and a force to be reckoned with. (Lol) We exchanged Facebook info and became more than just mutual Facebook friends. Not only did we message one another in the early hours in the morning to discuss health issues about her brother and me, but she also shared some of her personal interests with me as well. She, her mom, brother, and Tusie family will always be in my prayers. Love, Gary

“ My Heart is heavy today as the Lord has taken a beautiful angel to heaven Shun was more to me than a niece she was one of my other daughters (smile) Cordell often said Shun doesn't know if she's our niece or our daughter, Shun was a friend to everyone she met she was a stranger to no one her beautiful smile and the look she would give you would melt your heart you could never say no to her when she asked you for anything, we're going to miss that beauty soprano voice of hers the one thing i know she'll be singing it that heavenly choir, she sang so beautifully at church the Sunday before she went to be with the Lord. Missing you so much our family get together's won't be the same without Shun. Lots of Love RIP.

RIP Anitra. Although our visit was very brief, it was fun. I'm in disbelief of your passing. You had one of those personalities where you never met a stranger. May God be with your children and one day give them peace that surpasses all understanding. Until we meet again have eternal rest!

Words cannot express how broken I am. I would never have imagined my little sister would no longer be here. I know God has you in his arms now, but what I wouldn't give to hug you, laugh with you, and share "life" with you. I love you. Sherrie
