

Annie (Mucha) Hejl

April 24, 1915 - June 5, 2014

Annie (Mucha) Hejl 99, of Snook passed away peacefully at her residence, Thursday. Services are planned for Sunday, June 8, 2014 at 2:00 p.m. at the Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home Chapel, with Rev. Rudy Junek officiating. The burial will be at New Tabor Cemetery near Caldwell. The Visitation will be held Saturday evening from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. at the funeral home. Annie was born April 24, 1915 in the New Tabor Community to parents Jon and Julia (Macat) Mucha. She married Henry Hejl Jr. April 3, 1934 in Caldwell to this union were blessed five children, Monroe, Daniel, Joyce, Shirley and Betty. For the first twenty years of Annie and Henry's marriage they were farmers on the home place, and later in life she worked and retired from Texas A. & M. Agriculture Extension Service. She enjoyed various hobbies, baking, Cooking, canning, gardening vegetables and flowers, reading her bible, and spending time with friends and family. She loved being a homemaker and would always feed anyone that visited her home. She was very devoted to serving her Lord and Savior through various activities whether teaching confirmation classes at Snook Brethren Church or providing meals for funerals or being a Charter Member of Hope Evangelical Free Church in College Station where she was affectionately known as the "Prayer Warrior". Annie was an active member of her church until her passing. Mrs. Hejl was preceded in death by her parents, her husband of nearly 63 years Henry Hejl Jr., a son, Daniel Hejl, a daughter, Shirley Horton, a grandson, Jeffrey Hejl, a granddaughter, Karen Chitwood, 3 brothers, Joe, John, and Willie Mucha, 3 sisters, Julia Kerns, Tracy Hejl, and Georgia Kortis, and by a daughter-in-law, Audrey Hejl. Annie is survived by her loving family, a son, Monroe Hejl of Snook, two daughters Joyce Walker and husband Bill of Cohutta, Ga, and Betty Fields and husband Frank of College Station, 10 grandchildren, 25 great grandchildren, and 14 great- great grandchildren and by a daughter-in-law, Gladys Hejl of New Tabor. Serving as pallbearers will be Cameron Peters, Caleb Peters, Cody Farquer, B. J. Hejl, James Hejl and Clem Kortis.

Tribute Wall

SK

“ Annie (Mucha) Hejl

-----
Susan Kraus - June 24, 2014 at 07:58 AM

HG

“ Annie (Mucha) Hejl

-----
Henry and Betty Gold - June 06, 2014 at 08:47 PM