“ Anthony Washington, I remember when I first met you through a friend of a friend. You have always been a good friend of mine. I remember when we were on that old caliche road running standard breads then you had that big crawfish boil afterwards. We kicked back and laughed. You were always kind and always had a thoughtful word. After you would eat, you would always say, "that was some good grazing." Rest easy cowboy!

“ To my lovely cousin, cowboy you are going to be missed truly but you're riding all the horses that you want to. I will never forget that big smile you had on your face when you saw Angie, Lola, and myself riding by the house a couple months ago. All you did was smile and said "there goes my cowgirls". Cousin, love you forever. Gone but never forgotten. Ride on cowboy.

I have such great memories of him. I never will forget him. He is one of my all time favorites of all the players I ever coached. I just loved this guy. I just heard about this and it brings tears to my eyes. He will do a great job on God's team. Rest In Peace Anthony.
