Arthur Herman Lehmann, 85, of Thorndale, formally of Rockdale, went with the Lord peacefully Tuesday December 3, 2013 in his home surrounded by love. He was born July 29, 1928, to the late Herman and Louise Lehmann in Sandoval. He was Baptized, September 23, 1928, in the Zion Lutheran Church in Sandoval by Rev. Zillat. He was confirmed on the 9th of November at Zion Lutheran Church by Rev. J. Holm. He married the love of his life, Veronica Ann "Nancy" Schaeffer, October 25, 1953. Arthur attended school in Sandoval, Hare, and Thrall. He helped his father on the farm. In 1951 he was drafted to the Army where he served as a Military Police. After his time in the service he returned home and worked for a General Motors dealer and attended a General Motors training center. Later, he had his own business in Rockdale. After 49 years at the same job, he retired in 1994. After retiring, Arthur moved back to the homeplace where he enjoyed working in the yard. He was especially fond of spending time with his children and grandchildren. Together they would visit Colorado, the Grand Canyon, Niagara Falls, California, and Mount Rushmore to name a few. He loved telling stories about his past adventures. He liked a good game of rummy with his family and he never met a sweet he did not like. He took great pride in his appearance and expected the same from his family. He enjoyed his red Chevrolet truck and NASCAR. Arthur is survived by his son David Lehmann and his two children, Jennifer and Hunter; and his daughter Valerie Page, her husband Kenneth and their daughters, Kaleigh, Veronica and Savannah. Also, one brother
