

Arvin John Jones

December 3, 1958 - April 10, 2025

Arvin John Jones was born December 3, 1958 in Frankfurt Germany to Reval Viola (RV) Jones and Charlotte Brossman Jones. He passed away from this life on April 10, 2025.

He graduated from Milano High School in 1977 after moving there Livingston Texas in 1972. While at Milano his varsity basketball team made it to the Regional tournament for the first time since 1951. He loved basketball. He also held the school record in the “Mile” run which was only recently broken.

He was a Union Millwright by trade and worked in numerous capacities with Brown and Root, South Texas Nuclear Project and Commercial Contractors at the Alcoa Plant in Rockdale for Frank Felton. He retired from Craftcorps at the Freescale Plant in Austin as a foreman. He had many guys that he worked with that he thought highly of.

On February 2, 1980 he married Charlotte Coldiron, they had two children, Jennifer and Eric, and spent many hours on the road with sports activities. He loved to hunt, fish, take care of his cattle, bale hay, and grow his delicious tomatoes in his garden.

Arvin was a husband, father, hard worker and friend to many – but above all, his favorite role was being “Papa” to his four beloved grandchildren. He never missed a sporting event, cheering from the sidelines with pride and enthusiasm. He taught them how to fish, shared his knowledge of farming and ranching and was always there to lend a hand with livestock projects.

Arvin brought joy and laughter wherever he went, whether he was introducing his grandkids to everyone he met or taking them on special snack runs to CEFCO. Summers were marked by cherished family trips to the beach, memories made in the sun and sand that will last a lifetime. To call him a proud Papa would be an understatement – his love for his grandchildren was boundless, and they were truly the light of his life.

He is preceded in death by his dad RV Jones and Father in law Bobby Coldiron.

He is survived by his wife of 45 years Charlotte Jones, his daughter, Jennifer Ivins and husband Terry, his son Eric Jones and wife Kelsey, his grandsons, Max Ivins, Brayden Ivins and Easton Jones, granddaughter Taylor Jones, his mother Charlotte Anthis, his brothers DeWayne Jones and wife Shellie and Stephen Jones and wife Kim. His sister Rebecca Telg and husband Steve. His mother in law JoAnne Coldiron, his brother in law Randy Coldiron and wife Missy and numerous nieces and nephews and other family members and friends

Pallbearers to honor Arvin will be Eric Jones, Dewayne Jones, Stephen Jones, Randy Coldiron, Truitt Jones and Chance Coldiron.

Honorary Pallbearers to honor their Papa will be Max Ivins, Brayden Ivins, Taylor Jones, and Easton Jones.

“ I am just learning of Arvin’s passing. I remember baptizing Arvin and Charlotte on the same day many years ago. He was a humble and loving husband, father , and grandfather. And he loved the Lord and the church. Charlotte, Judy and I send our love to you! May the Lord bless your sad hearts with the sure and certain hope of a reunion at the coming of Jesus. “ I don't know where to begin. Arvin we had a good 5 years of working together. You taught me how to bale hay, build fence, how to a drive tractor and work on the equipment. You showed me how to work and how to earn a dollar. I'll never forget the time I wrecked your Dodge and you laughed it off as I thought I was in deep trouble. I was blessed to have another father figure like you. I wished you were here to meet my first born. I'll always be thankful for what you instilled in me and the time we shared we never said it but I love you man. I hope cattle prices are good and there is no running out of hay up there. I'll miss you, that's for sure.
