“ Hebrews 10:24
“Let us think about each other and help each other to show love and do good deeds”

I am the woman that I am today first of all because of my Mom. She instilled in me certain values to care about other people.

Our home was constantly filled with other people. If people were in pain, they were at her home. If they were on the road, they were at her house. If they were going through a conflict, they were at her house. If they needed a place to stay or to live, they were at her house. If they were hungry, they were at her home. If we added up how many meals my mom had cooked for guests in her home in one year, it could well be over a thousand meals! Mom was always ready to help others. She volunteered as a translator at the police department. She also volunteered at the elementary school by helping in the lunchroom and in the classroom.

I grew up learning an attitude of “give your life away” and that it’s not about me. It’s about helping other people.

That’s what Mom would do. She taught each of us to show love and to do good deeds. Good deeds are called ministry and service.

A good example of this is Cornelius’ family in the book of Acts: “He and all his family were devout and God-fearing; he gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly” (Acts 10:2).

“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of this dear lady. I worked with her at age 16 at Walmart and as a teacher taught many of her children in the years that followed at Rockdale High School. She visited me and gave gifts when my children were born and gave wise advice over the years in our passing conversations at Wal-Mart. We spoke often about our children, she loved her family so much. I can only hope that someday I can leave behind the legacy of love, kindness and thoughtfulness that this sweet lady leaves behind. The world has lost a bright light, but heaven now glows even brighter! Rest well, Ms. Dora.

“ Dora was a wonderful person and loved and cared for her family as I went to school with her granddaughter Kayle. I can say she always said her life was her family. I had the pleasure to know her as a child growing up and knew her from church. I will say she will never be forgotten and her family is in our prayers. May God be with them at this time and know He has gained a beautiful person and angel.

“ Ms Dora was a beautiful & sweet lady. I felt so blessed when I would see her; she always called me mija. She's the only one that called me that since I lost my mother. Gonna miss her so much. My condolences to the family. I'm a little jealous because this beautiful family has a very special angel watching over them.
