“ Just saw this and my heart sank in my chest with disbelief that Linda had passed . She was a wonderful treasured friend of mine when we were so so young. Almost every Houston Oilers football game Victor dropped her off at my parents home on Moline St in Houston and her and my parents and family would watch the game and Victor would pick her upon his way home. She is one of my favorite people that ever entered into my life and we always had so much fun together. My heart breaks for all of the family and all who loved her dearly. Victor, and Lana were the ones I knew best and my heart breaks for their loss as well as all of you. I loved her so much even though we hadn't seen one another since her sons wife's baby shower. I am sorry to just now have found out about her passing. Godspeed sweetest old friend💕

“ Omg, I just saw this. I am so sorry to hear this. Victor, Josh, Loretta, Lana and all the family. You are in our prayers. I had no idea she was sick. Many prayers for you all. She was such a wonderful person. I missed seeing her and talking to her after Joe and I divorced. I always loved Linda. She was my first friend in Houston. Fly High Linda. I love you.

“ Linda always had a smile. She loved to cook and share her recipes Linda loved her family and loved her grand daughter. During her illness she fought so hard and her husband always at her side. We love you Linda and we will all miss you, till we are all together again. God Bless You Linda, and we know your smiling down from Heaven
