

Bessie Cecile Sefcik

January 19, 1939 - February 6, 2018

Bessie Glover was born on January 19, 1939 in Liberty County to her parents James Franklin and Olga Blanche (Rougeau) Glover. She was married to Clarence Joe Sefcik in September of 1963 and to this union they had three loving children. When her children were young she was a Cub Scout and Girl Scout Leader, and supported them in everything they did by being a band booster and a volunteer. Bessie enjoyed her garden, tending to her flower, and cooking for family and friends. She was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary VFW Post 4485, and loved to spend time there with friends and play dominoes. Bessie was a member of the New Tabor Brethren Church where she went faithfully.

Family that has preceded her in death, her loving husband, Clarence J. Sefcik; both of her parents, James and Olga Glover; all of her siblings; and a very special friend, Al Chauvin.

She is survived by her children, sons, Clarence William Sefcik and Joe Tuner Sefcik; daughter, Vannessa Sefcik and spouse Charles Schneider; three sisters-in-law, Annie Mae McNair, Mildred Glover, and Gloria Glover; a grandchild, Christopher Schneider; three step grandchildren, Anthony, Carissa, and Rachel; and four step great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were R. T. Barnes, Raymond Barnes, Cecil Barnes, Ernest

Barnes, David Glover, James Trull, Michael McNair, and Alan McNair.

“ I remember your mother. You all lived next door to my Grandma Kovar, and I remember you children. Your mother was such a good neighbor to Grandma, and I enjoyed knowing her. I know you will miss her and my heart goes out to you. May your good memories be a comfort in the time to come.
