

Betty Evelyn Caffey

May 29, 1938 - September 30, 2021

Betty Evelyn Caffey, 83, of College Station passed away on Thursday, September 30, 2021 at Baylor, Scott, and White Hospital in College Station. A funeral service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, October 5, 2021 at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home in Rockdale. Officiating will be Pastor John Honea from Rock Prairie Baptist Church in College Station. Burial will be in Salty Cemetery near Thorndale. A visitation will be on Tuesday from noon to service time at the funeral home.

Betty was born on May 29, 1938 to Jesse and Olga (Schramm) Hobbs in the Watson Branch Community in Milam County. On September 24, 1955, she married Bobby Caffey in Thorndale. She owned and operated Thorndale Family Hair Salon in downtown Thorndale in the late 1980's. She enjoyed shopping and anything sweet, especially her Blue Bell ice cream and Diet Coke. Betty also enjoyed keeping up with her many friends and family by way of social media, and she was always known to pass a funny email along to everyone she knew. But the most enjoyment she received in this life was seeing her kids and grandkids grow up, and then getting to meet her great-grandchildren. She loved watching her grandkids play sports and enjoyed keeping them well-fed with her amazing cooking.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Jesse and Olga Hobbs; son, Randy Caffey; daughter, Donna Sue Schwarz; grandsons, Jason Glenn Schwarz, and Kevin Caffey; and brother, Martin Hobbs.

Betty is survived by her husband of 66 years, Bobby Caffey of College Station; son, Rex Caffey of College Station; grandchildren, Keith Caffey, Chad Schwarz, Justin Schwarz, Kayla Longoria, and Alyssa Winton; great grandchildren, Avery Schwarz, Lakelyn Schwarz, Tristan Schwarz, Rilynn Schwarz, Kace Winton, Easton Winton, and Ellie Longoria; and several nieces and nephews.

Serving as pallbearers are Chad Schwarz, Justin Schwarz, Keith Caffey, Kerry Caffey, Darrell Hobbs, and Brad Caffey.
