

Bill Domasch

January 3, 1922 - December 20, 2013

Funeral services for Bill Domasch, 91, of Ledbetter, Texas are scheduled for 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, December 28, 2013 at Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Warda, Texas with Rev. Dennis Tegtmeier officiating. Burial will follow in the Giddings City Cemetery. Visitation will be held on Friday, December 27, 2013 from 11:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. and on Saturday, December 28, 2013 from 7:00 a.m. until 8:00 a.m. at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home in Giddings. The family will be present for visitation Friday evening from 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m.

Wilhelm Bernhard "Bill" Domasch was born on January 3, 1922 in Warda, Texas to Alvin & Lydia (Pietsch) Domasch. He was baptized at Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Warda, Texas on January 22, 1922 by Rev. Gottfried Buchschacher and confirmed at Bethany Lutheran Church in Greens Creek, Texas on April 13, 1936 by Rev. Paul C. Eifert. Bill was united in marriage to Aura Lee Wendler on December 13, 1940 in Houston, Texas. He was a farmer and rancher who had also been employed as an electrician, carpenter and truck driver. He enjoyed being outdoors, hunting and fishing. He taught each of his great grandchildren how to fish. Bill passed away the morning of Friday, December 20, 2013 at St. Mark's Medical Center in La Grange. He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Aura Lee Domasch; two sisters-in-law, Minnie Albers & her husband, Eddie, and Zita Albers & her husband, Alfred, and two brothers-in-law, Hubert Wendler & his wife, Clara, and Arno Wendler & his wife, Maxine. Bill is survived by his two daughters and sons-in-law, Barbara & Larry Spence of Rosanky and Helen & Innis Wagner Jr. of Warrenton; two grandchildren, Denise Wolff of Austin and Carrie Wagner of Warrenton; two great grandchildren, Tyler Wolff of San Antonio and Chris Baumbach of La Grange; One great great granddaughter, Parker Baumbach; four nieces, Evelyn Strangemeyer of Brenham, Ann Schwinger of Houston, Julie Strong of Austin and Myra Nowicki of Ledbetter and a nephew, Michael Albers of Waldeck. Memorials may be made to Holy Cross Lutheran Church Ladies Aid or to the charity of one's choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Bill Domasch

Sedalia Ullrich - December 24, 2013 at 10:29 PM

“ Bill Domasch

Gloria Hickey - December 23, 2013 at 08:19 PM