“ I'm at a loss to say about how I am feeling losing you Birdie. You're one of those people who everyone just thought would go on and on because of your kindness, love, and generosity to others. I haven't seen you in 10 years, but it seems like just yesterday. I have enough memories to keep me going through the years. Rodney took me to meet you on Christmas morning and you welcomed me with open arms even though I was a few years older than Rodney, LOL. You're always with Rodney and I and they even helped take care of Alicia when she couldn't get ahold of me. I don't know how we all made it through the Corvette ordeal but it was just meant to be. You were such a strong, kind, and generous woman. You will be missed by all and everyone will have their own special story about your kindness. Your children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren are very lucky to have a grandmother like you. A grandmother is a very special person and I'm sure they'll cherish the love that they got from you everyday. Please God take care of Ed as I think he will have a hard time without you. God, please take care of your children as well as they will miss that great special mom that they had. Rodney just told me the other night how lucky he and Breck were to have a mom whose sons could do no wrong. It was a joke but a true one.

“Birdie was an amazing lady...always so kind & thoughtful, yet a strong but loving soul. She had been a rock for us after losing Scott - always calling me on his birthday, our birthdays, our anniversary, and many times in between. We could talk for hours! She LOVED her family! From day one, when I first met Birdie (36 years ago), she hugged me & said, "You're part of the family now. If Scott loves you, so do I." She accepted me and loved me unconditionally, as she always did with others! We've had many laughs over the years. I shall miss her sweet spirit, her sense of humor, our marathon conversations, and her love for family! We shall miss her but will celebrate her, her life and all the special qualities she was to so many! RIP Mom. Special love & prayers to Ed/Dad, Woody/Gaylynn, Connie/Albert, Rodney (still remember my motorcycle ride Mom talked me into with you), Breck & Blake, and Aunt Grace. What an extraordinary family we have! Hugs, love & prayers to ALL!

“ I loved you so, Birdie. I was so hoping to get to see you again. It's been so long. You and Mom were such good friends for quite a while there. I remember y'all sitting in front of the window drinking coffee, seems like everyday, talking about all of us kids. I'm sure I remember parties at the house and staying overnight. You reached out to me so much on Facebook when we lost mom, and then dad. Your sweet words meant a lot to us. You are such a sweetheart. I can't believe we're giving them to Ed, Connie and Woody, and the kids now. Love you all. Praying always for you all.

Birdie was such an awesome person. She had no problem telling you what was on her mind. She loved her family and they all knew it. She was always there for them no matter what. I will always remember one of her favorite sayings. "That little sh". She will be missed deeply especially by her family. Love you
