

Bobbie Jean Kenner

August 20, 1923 - October 16, 2011

Bobbie Jean Kenner, 88, of Houston (formerly of Caldwell) passed away Sunday, October 16, 2011 at her home. Services were held at 11 am Wednesday, October 19 at First Assembly of God Church in Caldwell with Rev. David Ryman officiating. Interment was in Caldwell Masonic Cemetery. Mrs. Kenner was born August 20, 1923 in Elois, Tennessee to James Henry and Nellie Gregory Barley. She enjoyed music and for many years she served as organist at First Assembly of God Church in Caldwell. She also enjoyed reading her Bible, crocheting afgans and made the best chicken and dumplings. She was preceded in death by her parents; a son, Charles R. Kenner, Jr. a brother and two sisters. Survivors include her husband of 69 years, Charles R. Kenner, Sr. of Houston; two daughters, Beverly V. Baugher and Dana J. Kenner both of Houston; six grandchildren; fifteen great-grandchildren; three great-great grandchildren and numerous nephews and nieces. Pallbearers were Greg Johnson, Don Garner, Sloan Essman, Joel Cowan, Troy Poehl and Mac Cox.

Tribute Wall

“ Bobbie Jean Kenner

Tonya Laird - October 20, 2011 at 11:20 AM