

Bobby Ray Coldiron

November 12, 1932 - August 27, 2022

Bobby Ray Coldiron, 89, of Milano passed away on Saturday, August 27, 2022 in Bryan. A graveside service will be held at 10:00 am on Wednesday, August 30, 2022 in Sand Grove Cemetery in Milano. A visitation will be 5 – 7 pm on Tuesday at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home in Rockdale.

Bobby was born on November 12, 1932 to Alton Ruby and Eunice Katheryn (McNiel) Coldiron in Milano. He graduated from Milano High School before enlisting into the United States Army. On November 29, 1952, he married JoAnne Burgess in Chriesman. He was a foreman at TXU. After taking an early retirement, he enjoyed getting more into his music. He loved his wife and his country music. He loved playing the guitar and singing at jamborees. He was learning how to play the banjo and fiddle. He enjoyed wildlife, especially birds. He raised lots of different birds, including chickens and quail. He was also an accomplished woodworker.

He is preceded in death by his parents Alton and Eunice Coldiron; brother, JR Coldiron; parents-in-law, Woodrow Burgess, Sr. and Mittie Haddox Burgess; brothers-in-law, Eddie Collins, Jr. and Woody Burgess and sister-in-law, Patsy Moody.

Bobby is survived by his loving wife of 69 years, JoAnne Coldiron of Milano; daughter, Charlotte Jones and husband Arvin of Rockdale; son, Randy Coldiron and wife Missy of Milano; sister, Joyce LaDean Collins of Nederland; grandchildren, Chance Coldiron and wife Alexis, Mikey Coldiron and wife Melisa, Mandy Clanton and husband Daniel, Jennifer Ivins and husband Terry, and Eric Jones and wife Kelsey; and 20 great grandchildren. Brothers-in-law, Jimmy Burgess and wife Delanie and Gene Moody; sisters-in-law, Vivian Collier and husband Johnny and Mary Beth Burgess.

Serving as pallbearers are Randy Coldiron, Arvin Jones, Chance Coldiron, Mikey Coldiron, Eric Jones, and Seth Coldiron.
