Byler Thane Lehmann was born on April 5, 1995 in Bryan, Texas to Landis Lehmann & Neldra (Busby) Applegate. He was baptized in December of 1995 at First United Methodist Church and was baptized again on January 29, 2017, at New Heights Church in College Station. He attended Giddings High School. Byler then got his GED and attended Blinn College. He was a welder for J&J Metal Works. Byler enjoyed music, backpacking to attend concerts, fabricating, and spending time on the river. He would set out with his pack and a bus ticket, to new places, knowing no one, but always returning with new friends and great memories. “ I want to say how very sorry and devastated I was to hear about Byler passing. I didn't have the privilege to know Byler for very long. Although for the amount of time I did, he was a blessing and a very sweet, sweet soul. I will miss his beautiful smile and kind words he gave to us. Always wanting to help and I know heaven gained a beautiful angel. There are no words I can say that will bring you comfort I'm sure, but I will be saying prayers for all of you and know that God will bring you peace through this very difficult time. May you rest in peace sweet Byler!

“ *Janell and I are heart sick over your grievous loss. Times like this take us through the deepest and darkest places in the Valley of the Shadow of Death. The only thing that sees us through is the subtle, comforting presence of the Spirit of Christ who draws especially close and leads us forward to a better day, and finally to that eternal day in his whole presence together with all of those we have loved and have gone on before us. Remember His never failing love for each of you and Byler, and that the valley you are traveling is only the shadow of death, and it will fade away in the light of Christ Jesus.
