

Carol J. White

October 23, 1943 - November 28, 2023

Carol was born on October 23, 1943 in Bellaire, Texas to Kurt Von Beckmann and Evelyn Elliott Beckman. She was one of three siblings. Carol attended high school in Bellaire Texas. After graduation she attended Sam Houston University in Huntsville, Texas. Carol met her husband Joe White in Caldwell, and they were married in August of 1985.

Carol was a middle school teacher and also taught special education. She was the most organized and responsible person you could ever meet. Among her favorite things to do were quilting, sewing stockings for her loved ones and reading books. Carol also loved gardening and especially roses. Playing dominoes (42) and spending time fishing at Lake Travis were also among her favorite pastimes.

Carol is preceded in death by her parents and late husband, Joe White.

She is survived by her daughter, Debra Kay Johnson; sons, Douglas Aaron Pharr and Jeffrey Allan White; sister Joyce Squares, brother Paul Von Beckmann and her grandchildren, Justin and Tyler Pharr, Shane, Kyle and Shealynn Johnson and Harlo White. She is also survived by her great-grandchildren, Easton Johnson and Natalie Pharr.

Carol's family is grateful for her life and devotion to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Her love for family and friends will be forever cherished; never forgotten. She will be missed dearly.

“ I first met Carol approximately in the fall of 2014 - she stood outside my office at the Chevy dealership very patiently awaiting my time for over thirty minutes! When I finished my current client, two phone calls and then a third that got through, I asked her name and what could I do for her? I half expected an irate customer of some sort, as sometimes was the norm, or perhaps a sales pitch. To my surprise, she handed me a Brookshire Brothers bag with a handmade purple lap quilt in it. She told me that she made these as a past-time and she wanted me to have one as she had heard from her kids and their friends that I was a pretty good person and she felt that I needed some kindness. That was the beginning of a deep and rewarding friendship with a very direct, self sufficient, honest, and high integrity lady.

May her family know how blessed they are to have had her as their mom and I thank them for allowing the time to get to know her so well. Please find comfort in knowing that Carol was at peace with her life and knew she had taught her kids the best she knew how. She always said "now they are all adults and will most definitely figure it out".

We talked many long hours and I know that she was ready to meet her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She didn't attend church proper and maybe even sometimes late, but watched on TV for years. We prayed often together. I am sure that she touched many lives and I know she be missed.

It's the dash in the middle that makes the difference in this life, rest in peace my friend! Amen!
