

Carrie Rachel Beckett

November 8, 1928 - August 1, 2015

Carrie Rachel (Davis) Beckett was born on November 8, 1928 in Ashland, Kentucky, the daughter of E.H. & Carrie (Walden) Davis. Carrie was united in marriage to Joseph Beckett in 1946. Carrie was a devoted homemaker who enjoyed raising her son Daniel while her husband was travelling to many different job sites as a welder. She enjoyed working in her garden, cooking, growing flowers, loved all animals and would take in any lost creature that was in need.

She passed away the morning of Saturday, August 01, 2015 at Seton Medical Center.

Carrie was preceded in death by her parents; one son, Joseph Beckett Jr.; her sisters, Irene, Ollie and Betty as well as numerous brothers.

She is survived by her husband, Joseph Beckett of Carmine; her son, Daniel W. and wife Cora Beckett of Austin; her grandchildren, Angela and David McGinnis of Georgetown, Shari & Steven Quiroz of Georgetown, Robbie and Jana Beckett of Elgin and Erin and Matt Beal of Round Rock; twelve great grandchildren, Morgan, Michael, Taylor, Camryn, Lane, Georgia, Ellie, Ashlynn, Brodie, Aiden, Paige and Allison; siblings, Pattie Artirip of Tennessee, John Davis of Washington and Earl Davis of Kentucky.

The family has chosen to have a private service of remembrance for her at a later date.

Memorials may be made to any local animal shelter or rescue organization of your choice.

“ She made the Best Peanut Butter Fudge, I have tried to duplicate it for year's and have never mastered it. I loved their house in the Valley at Christmas. You could see it ahead for miles, the lights sent signals of Love. I am very Thankful we where able to be with her on her last days . We will all be together again.
