“ Chad took care of our son's many times so my husband and I could go to KC events with his dad and mom. This happened often over several years. We loved Chad as did our sons. We are deeply saddened for Willie and Pat. No one wishes to outlive their children. Please contact if we can do anything for you. Although we haven't kept in touch we fondly remember you both and Chad and Rodney. elpasokidthirteen@gmail.com is our email. Please feel free to get in touch anytime. God Bless you both as well as Chad's family and Rodney's family. We love ♥♥ you all.

“ Priscilla, I am so very sorry about the passing of your husband, Chad. Here is a poem a friend sent to me when your uncle Harry died:
Sleep on my loved one. Peace is yours. Your life's work is done. All who knew you can say "Well Done". There is one more star God put up in the sky, Chad's. So look up on a starry night and he will be the brightest shinning on you.
Praying for you, your family, and Chad's family. May God give you comfort, courage, and strength.

“ It feels like yesterday that I first met Chad, the warm welcome he gave me on my first day on the job. He was nothing but patient & thoughtful about helping me get a grasp on things, never once complaining about all my annoying questions. And I'll always treasure the times he would drive over and we would hang out on the front porch having a beer, just talking about everything and nothing. I'm going to miss him so much (I already do).

“ I want to say that I am sorry for you all's loss. I remember Chad as a little boy who lived on Hogan Street with my family. He was a fun boy and he always thought he was as big as the rest of us children on our street. I remember him when the kids on the street played in the street with our balls. He will be missed and I will be praying for all of you. Praying for comfort and peace in the days ahead. I know it is hard to loss someone in your family. Your parents have been there for my family in the loss of my love ones.

“ So many fond memories of Chad that I could go on and on. He felt like a son to Craig and I, and he definitely was our Ryan's brother. Those two were something else. We will forever remember sweet Chad and hold him close in our hearts forever. So thankful we got to be a part of this beautiful soul's life.
