

Charles Pat Ivy

October 20, 1954 - January 14, 2021

Charles Pat Ivy, 66, of Lexington, TX passed away on Thursday, January 14, 2021. Funeral services will be held at Phillips and Luckey Funeral Home on Wednesday, January 20, at 2pm. Pastor Greg Crawford will officiate over his service. Burial will follow services at Lexington Cemetery in Lee County, TX. Charlie was born in Crockett, TX on October 20, 1954, and grew up in the Houston area and went to J. Frank Dobie High School. He served in the Navy when he was young and later established a successful appraisal business. Charlie was married to his wife Becky Dennis on September 26, 2004. They met through their hospitality work at the Lone Star Cowboy Church in Montgomery, TX where Charlie's ability to make people feel at ease was put to good use. Charlie was a people person, always making new friends everywhere they went, and after moving to the Brazos County Cowboy Church he served hot meals from an open fire on Sundays and from his Chuck Wagon at competitive cookouts. Charlie and Becky settled in Lexington, TX and joined Lee County Cowboy Church where he continued to cook open fire breakfast and meet new friends. Charlie is a Texas Patriot and loved all things Texas. He was very proud of his Texas history and enjoyed cooking the old cowboy way "cast iron on an open flame". He was preceded in death by both of his parents Velma (Treybig) and Bob Ivy. He is survived by his loving wife, Becky (Dennis) Ivy; daughters, Alicia Randall and husband Steve, and April Frank and husband Nathan; grandchildren, Nolan Randall, Abigail Ivy, Claire Frank, Houston Frank; three step children; and three step grandchildren.
