“ *Cheryl was so kind to our mother, Catherine Jackson, when our father, Floyd Jackson, was in hospice care at Richard's Hospital. She not only gave our mother emotional support, she also made sure she had everything she needed while she stayed our father's side until he passed.
I also recall Cheryl's kindness when she taught our Sunday school class at St Joseph's during one of my elementary years.
My sincerest condolences to Darrell and all of Cheryl's family.

“ Cheryl had such a beautiful soul. I don't remember ever seeing her without a smile. She was always full of wit and wisdom. I was never around her that she didn't make me laugh and leave me with a warm peaceful feeling. You will be missed sweet lady. Rest well in the arms of the angels.
