

Christi Lynn Horak

June 16, 1957 - November 10, 2024

Christi Horak, 67 of Lexington, Texas, passed away on Sunday, November 10, 2024, at her home in Lexington. Born on June 16, 1957, Christi dedicated over three decades to the dental field, demonstrating a passion and commitment that left a lasting impact on her colleagues and patients alike.

Christi was known for her love of makeup and dressing up. Her home was her sanctuary, where she could be found savoring her morning coffee on the front porch watching the deer or hummingbirds. Her evenings were spent enjoying episodes of "The Voice." Her love for the Lord was profound and influenced many aspects of her daily life. She was a strong fighter throughout her life, a dedicated mother, and loving wife. She was baptized in her younger years at Trinity Baptist Church in Lubbock Texas and was happily married to Stephen Horak at the Evangelical Church in Elgin Texas.

Sadly, Christi was preceded in death by her mother, Rosemary Hobbs; her father, Darrel McBrayer; her daughter, Steffeni Horak; her grandson, Jesse Wilhite, and her father-in-law, John Horak.

Christi is survived by her husband, Stephen Horak of Lexington; her children, Brandi & Mattia D'Errico of League City, Cori & Brent Wilhite of McDade, and Ashli & John Arnold of Lexington; six grandchildren, Jordyn & Logan Lee of Lexington, Shaelyn & Dylan Dussetschleger of Ledbetter, Hanna Schendel of Altair, Addilyn Arnold of Lexington, Mattia D'Errico Jr. of League City, and Maverick Arnold of Lexington; one great grandchild, Leighton Lee of Lexington; one sister, Juli & Kenny Kirk of Colorado; one brother, Randy & Sherri McBrayer of Azle; mother-in-law, Shirley Horak of Rosenberg; sister-in-law, Debbie Horak of Rosenberg, as well as several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

A private memorial service to honor and celebrate Christi's life will be held at a later date.

Contributions in memory of Christi can be made to the Adina Christian Church.
