Clarence Sefcik was born in Caldwell, TX on September 10, 1964 to parents Clarence Joe Sefcik and Bessie Cecile (Glover) Sefcik. In his youth Clarence was nicknamed "Booger" and well, it stayed with him his whole life. Booger was a Caldwell High School Graduate and did some trade schooling. He enjoyed his Boy Scout years and was a beloved football coach. Dominoes and cards were his favorite pastimes, especially later in life. He was a member of the New Tabor Brethren Church. Booger was very good with his hands and worked at Woodson's Lumber doing Carpentry work. Then comes Booger's passion the Caldwell Volunteer Fire Department. He has been a member since he has graduated high school and spent most of his free time up at the station. The Fire Department is his other family and was very important in his life.

Booger was preceded in death by his grandparents, his father, Clarence Joe Sefcik; his mother, Bessie Cecile Sefcik; and numerous aunts and uncles. He is survived by his brother, Joe Turner Sefcik; his sister, Vanessa Sefcik Schneider and husband Charles; a nephew, Christopher Schneider; step nieces and nephew, Rachael Wingo, Carissa Schneider, and Anthony Schneider; an Aunt, Mildred Glover; numerous cousins and extended family.

The family would like to extend special thanks to his brothers at the Caldwell Fire Department. Your love and friendship will forever be cherished.
