

Clifford Craig Wallace

January 16, 1951 - April 21, 2022

Clifford Craig Wallace, age 71 of Georgetown, formerly of Rockdale, passed away Thursday, April 21, 2022 at his home in Georgetown.

Craig was born January 16, 1951 in Pasadena, Texas to Cliff and Bernice Jean (Longmire) Wallace. While living in the Pasadena area he worked with the railroad. He moved to Rockdale where he lived for 25 plus years. He worked for Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home. and Alcoa. He has lived in Georgetown the past two and a half years. His hobbies were cooking, baking and model railroad trains. He absolutely loved music and animals.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Cliff on April 20, 1977 and Jean Wallace on October 22, 2009.

Surviving are his daughters, Whitney Wallace of Jarrell and Bailey Wallace of Georgetown; sisters, Carla Wallace and husband David Lands and Carol Wallace Jones and husband Charlie and two grand cats Meow and Peaches that he loved dearly.

His passion for life and loving will be so extremely missed.

There will be a private family burial.

Tribute Wall

KN

“ Kim Nelson-Simank lit a candle in memory of Clifford Craig Wallace

Kim Nelson-Simank - May 11, 2022 at 11:14 PM

KS

“ I knew Craig as a person who loved his daughters and would do anything for them. He was witty, friendly, and always enjoyed my talks with him.
My deepest sympathy to his daughters and family.
Kay

Kay Simank - April 28, 2022 at 04:37 PM

KS

“ Kay Simank lit a candle in memory of Clifford Craig Wallace

Kay Simank - April 28, 2022 at 04:35 PM

“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Clifford Craig Wallace.

April 27, 2022 at 10:47 PM