“ I am a friend of Clint's and I met him when I was with his brother, Jim Harlin Daniels . We went to see him this one time and we had so much fun horseback riding. We rode for hours talking just about everything . We were all so young then, teenagers. Visited him one time again on my way back to Colorado. Jim and i met up with him at I believe a parade. We had a good visit. He was so very kind. I'm going to miss you and I'm honored to have met you, Clint, my dear friend . Bye for now, see you in heaven, God bless your family.
