“ I did not know your mother well and had only met her a couple of times. She was as she looks in her memorial and pictures, warm, hospitable and kind. I see her in Joe and Pete, the smile, the kindness and though I didn't get to know her laughter, I imagine she is the one who instilled her sons with it along with it and the ability to make others smile and feel welcome.

“ May the Lord bless you and keep you. I have known Joe since the first grade (Pete a little later) and have been amazed and inspired by their talents and kindness. Connie was a wonderful mother to have guided you all these years, living by example and in service to others with a devout faith. Blessings and happy memories to your family.

“ Pete, Joe and Anna (Anna's Family) we are so sorry for your loss of your mother, Concepcion.

She was the sweetest lady, and a devout Catholic. If anyone needed help, whether it was care at their home, housekeeper for many priests, she was a good helper for everyone. Molly and Connie were close friends, I am going to miss her !!

Sincerely and love, Fred & Molly Marquez & Melissa, Roseanne, & Fred Jr.
