

Craig Scott Zoch

May 3, 1965 - May 11, 2021

On May 11, 2021, Craig Scott Zoch passed away peacefully surrounded by family at his home in Giddings.

Craig was born on May 3, 1965 in Houston, Texas to Kenneth and Gladys (Teinert) Zoch. He was baptized on May 23, 1965 at Ascension Lutheran Church and confirmed on May 20, 1979 at Mt. Olive Lutheran Church in Houston.

Craig is survived by his mother, Gladys Zoch of Giddings; daughter, Ashley and Josh Jaramillo of Austin; brother, Ron and Susan Zoch of Pasadena; niece, Carolyn Zoch of Houston, nephew Randy Zoch of Pasadena, and a host of beloved cousins, aunts, and uncles.

He was preceded in death by his father, Kenneth Zoch.

Craig worked for Airgas, Inc for over 34 years as a Plant Manager of Logistics and Maintenance where he formed lifelong friendships and traveled frequently. Craig enjoyed bringing people together by hosting family functions, holidays, and parties. He loved spending time in the kitchen and creating delicious meals for his family. Craig's greatest accomplishments included being a loving father and uncle. Craig was known for his quick wit, infectious smile, and fun-loving spirit.

A private Celebration of Life will be held in Giddings at a later date.

Following Craig's wishes there will not be a service, but family and friends are encouraged to donate to Hospice Brazos Valley in his honor, or to the charity of one's choice.

Ashley and Carolyn: you wrote a beautiful tribute for Craig. I love the pictures. Craig was a special guy. He was quirky in the best kind of way. Ashley, I'm so glad he came into your life and that he was such a good Daddy to you. I know you girls will miss him; cherish every moment y'all shared with him especially the ones that make you laugh and cry at the same time. Big hugs, Carolyn. Love you, Ashley. With fond memories, Aunt Carolyn Sprouse.
