

Curtis A. Could

May 23, 1933 - April 12, 2008

A memorial service for Curtis A. Gould, 74, will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, April 19, 2008 at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home's chapel with Rev. Leslie Adams of Mount Calvary Baptist Church officiating. He will be cremated. Mr. Gould died Saturday, April 12, at his home in Rockdale. He was born May 23, 1933, to James Mortimer and Deedy (Brown) Gould in Lee County and was raised in the Pleasant Grove community near Lexington. He graduated from Lexington High School. Mr. Gould married Faye Glenn, on Aug. 23, 1963, in Austin. He retired as a purchasing agent for Alcoa after 35 years of service. He was a member of Calvary Baptist Church in Rockdale and enjoyed raising cattle, fishing and working crossword puzzles. Mr. Gould was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, on March 20, 2008; a son, Ricky G. Lee, on May 20, 1998; and a brother, James (Pee Wee) Gould. Survivors are two granddaughters, Wendy Nicole Lee Burke and husband Bryan of Blue Ridge and Tracy Lee Awalt and husband Andy of Fairfield; two great-grandchildren, Elijah Justice Burke and Anna Haven Burke; a brother, Carl (Bub) Gould of Buda; two nephews, Jim Gould of Port Arthur and James C. (Bubba) Gould of the Blue community; two nieces, Cathryn (Kitty) Garrett of Bastrop and Casey Sutton of Dallas; a daughter-in-law, Ann Lee of Fairfield. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Scott & White Hospital Pulmonary Division, 2401 S. 31st St., Temple, TX 76508.