“ Cyndi always seemed to bring joy and Light with her to Church and meetings ... a truly special woman. The two of you together made a beautiful pair as you led your family through life hand in hand. I'm sure it is unimaginable right now to see how your big family, blessed with her as wife, mother, and friend would be able to rise above your grief and go forward in life. BUT GOD will give you the peace that surpasses understanding. Just reach out to Him for it. We know that she is with Our Lord Jesus, so ask Him to comfort you with the Holy Spirit till you all go to be with Cyndi, by and by.

“ Cyndi was an incredible woman and friend! I am so blessed to have had her as my bestie and our third musketeer/amiga!!! She always had good advice and guidance for those seeking her help, of which there were many people who needed her for that...especially me. My life has been forever touched and changed in the best ways as a result of her love and friendship. I will always remember her boisterous and infectious laugh, her love for margaritas, that “LOOK” she would give you when you already knew better and she was about to tell you all about it 🤔🤔, but what I’ll remember most is how much she loved her family!! You were always her first priority and she was so proud of all of you. She was always bragging about how great each of her kids, grandkids, and hubby were and she was so happy!! She built a life and home full of respect and love and I have always admired her for that.

I will miss our long talks, daily group chats and silly chat names...

Most of all, I’ll miss being able to “taco bout it” all with you...

Our deepest condolences to all of you during this difficult time. May God wrap you in his loving embrace and bring you peace as you grieve.

We love y’all very much!

“ I am grief stricken to hear about the sudden passing of Cyndi. Cyndi and I worked closely together for many years at Praxair. I had the pleasure of visiting her and her family in Texas where I feasted on her brisket and Landis taught me how to Two Step. We enjoyed a visit to the Calgary Stampede together. I will always remember her laugh, smile and great sense of humour. Family was everything to Cyndi my deepest condolences to Landis, their children and all her family.
