

Cynthia Dawn Vick

September 10, 1954 - December 3, 2022

Cynthia Dawn Vick, 68, passed away on Saturday, December 3, 2022 at her home in Caldwell. A public visitation will be on Thursday, December 8, 2022 from 10:00 to 11:00 AM with funeral services beginning at 11:00 AM at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home, 404 West Buck St., Caldwell, TX. Burial will follow at Providence Baptist Church Cemetery with the Rev. Wayne Medlin officiating.

Cynthia Dawn Thomson, "Cindy", was born on September 10, 1954 to Arthur Leonard Thomson and Nona Carol Purvis in Duncan, OK. She was one of three siblings. She graduated from Duncan High School in Duncan, OK. Cindy met her future husband, Robert Kyle "Bob" Vick, in Duncan, OK and they were married Aug. 15, 1979 in Lawton, OK. To this union came three children, Kayla Renee Vick of the home, Kassidy Elizabeth Vick, and Katelyn Christina Vick. Cindy had retired after many years service from Anadarko Petroleum and was enjoying her time with her loved ones at home. She also enjoyed attending services at Providence Baptist Church.

She was very much loved and will be greatly missed by her family and many friends.

She is preceded in death by her mother Nona Carol Thomson, her grandmother Lola Mary Purvis "Granny" who helped raise her, her father Arthur Leonard Thomson and her brother William Harry "Bill" Thomson.

Cindy is survived by her husband Bob Vick of Caldwell, three daughters, and three grandchildren Kooper, Tyler, and Lee and a sister, Deborah Medlin of Spring Hope, NC.

“ Cindy was my sister-in-law of nearly a half a century. She was always happy and loving to all family members. She overlooked our idiosyncrasies always with a smile. She was always logical with extraordinary intelligence. She was a great mother to her children and a great wife to my brother Bobby. She will be missed by many.

“ Although I haven't seen Cindy in a while, I consider her to be a good friend. Such a sweet spirit that loved her family, friends, and horses. I will always remember her love for Tomelane Gaskamp and the Bar T Ranch. She was so elated when Mrs. G sold Cindy her most favorite horse, Missy.

Bob, love and prayers to you and the girls!
