“ Aunt Daisy was as close to perfect as any human being could imagine being. She was the exact same when ever or where ever you saw her. Rather it be in church, the grocery store, the doctors office or sitting in her yard. Caring and considerate of anyone that she crossed paths with. If she had a slice of bread, she would give you half of it. This little petite lady had a gigantic heart that was pure as gold. I can't recall ever hearing her complain about anything nor anyone. She appreciated any and everything that was offered, done, directed or even closely related to her. Based on my view of her, no one can tell me a negative thing that she intentionally did against or toward anyone. I have 45 years of nothing but beautiful memories to cherish. I always viewed her as "my other Mother." She has and always will hold a very special place in my heart.
