“ Betty, I wish I had the words to ease your suffering, but I know words are just not enough. Your daughter was such a beautiful blessing, and my heart breaks for you and your loss.

Please accept my sympathies and know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I walked the same steps you are walking now when I lost my son, Randy, in 2012. In fact, he and Dana were the same age, born in 1969, and went to school together. The hurt never goes away, but they have left us with part of them and a legacy in their children and grandchildren. Remember, I will be here for you in you ever need anything or need to talk, even if it is in the middle of the night. Love and a big hug, Jo Ann Sell Nelson..
