“ Kathy, Daniel was one of a kind...I will miss Daniel's funny way of showing he cared...like "oops this phone must have accidentally dialed "Bueno" but now that I have you on the phone how are you?" and his loving way of answering the phone when I would call, "What Bueno, what do you want? It ain't no holiday why you calling?" or his way of inviting me to eat..."Bueno, Kathy told me we had to take you to eat so be ready to jump on the truck cuz we ain't stopping"...I could just go on and on...I am sure that Daniel will have my Mom and all that have gone before him laughing and smiling in heaven. We now have two angels watching over us...Daniel and My Mom. Love you Kathy and Rest in Peace Daniel.

“ I would like to be the first to share a memory of my husband and best friend. Daniel was strong, courageous, protective, kind, and loving. He had a great sense of humor and old fashioned moral values. He made me laugh everyday. If he liked you, you've probably been a recipient of his teasing or joking. He loved his family and had a real soft spot for his grandchildren. His favorite color was camouflage, evidenced by walking in our closet or any other room of our home. I will most miss him calling my name every time I was out of his sightline and his continuous question, "Are you alright?". The next time we meet I know he will greet me with that smile that has melted my heart every day for the past 23 years. Until then I will carry him in my heart.
