“ When thinking of Danielle, words like fearless, outspoken, honest, compassionate, and fiercely loyal come to mind. She wholeheartedly loved and always wanted the best for her devoted husband Kenn and had nothing but pride and joy for her bright son, Donn, whom she adored. Although my connection to her was primarily through my longtime friendship with Kenn, she did not hesitate to open their home as a place of refuge to me during a troubled time in my life. My heart hurts for the loss being felt by her family and closest friends, but my spirit rejoices because I know she has arrived at her eternal home and is experiencing a peace, joy, and exuberance in the presence of our Savior which is difficult to sustain this side of heaven.
