

Darrell "DW" Streetman

March 19, 1955 - May 15, 2021

Darrell W. Streetman, 66, of Caldwell passed away peacefully on Saturday, May 15, 2021 in College Station, Texas. A Celebration of Life will be held in the Chapel at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home, Caldwell, Texas at 10:00 AM on Wednesday, May 26th.

Darrell was born on March 19, 1955 to Lloyd and Lucille Noack Streetman in Houston, Texas. He was well known among family and friends for his kindness and generosity. Darrell was also known for being a "Jack of all trades". He really enjoyed tinkering with cars and riding his motorcycle. He could fix anything he put his mind to. He also loved being on the ocean, fishing and spending time with family.

Darrell is preceded in death by his parents Lloyd Streetman and Lucille Streetman Kubin as well his brother, Randy "Wheelchair" Streetman.

He is survived by his son, Richard Streetman and his wife Michelle of Bonduel Wisconsin; daughter Amanda Hilden and her husband Ted of Texas City, Texas; grand-children, Seth Streetman, Codey Hilden, Dixson Streetman and Tucker Streetman.

Darrell will be remembered as a kind-hearted friend, father and grandfather. He was loved deeply and will be sorely missed.

“ Darrell and my brothers go way back to about the mid 60's. I met him I was about 7 or 8 and he was building mini bikes out of lawn mowers taking the motors and installing them into bike frames, he was about 11 or 12. We later met up and worked together for many years. We had some good times. Rest In Peace old friend.
