“ Darwin and Lillian was two sweet people and I have sweet memories of them growing up in Tanglewood. I baby sitted their 3 small children numerous times while I was in high school and always enjoyed them. I lost contact with them when I married and moved away. Although I did visit with Darwin and Lillian at funerals and functions. Again sweet memories. My prayers and thoughts are with their children and families 🙏❤️

“ Uncle Darwin was a quiet man but a man of many talents. He was excellent when it came to working with wood. When I was a young girl he made a checker board set for me using contrasting wood for each square. I stayed with Aunt Lillian and Uncle Darwin quite a lot and helped babysit. Usually a man of few words, get him talking about something he liked and he could talk forever. So many fond memories. Condolences to all the family. I hope he and Lillian will be two stepping all over heaven. Love y'all.
