“ In the late 70's Sharon and David moved in next door on Dyer St. here in Rockdale. I was in the backyard messing with something, when I saw these three guys in their backyard. So I went over to the fence to introduce myself, and that's when I met Mr. Bujnoch and his two son's, "Big Red" and "Little Red" (please don't ask me which one was David, I haven't been able to get that straight ever since). I not only met some of the nicest people that day, I got some of the best "Deer" sausage I ever ate. I've bragged about those two experiences ever since.
