“ David was such a blessing to our family, especially our parents, Marjorie and Joe Weldon Bailey, and to all the Liberty Church family. He had a contagious smile, a kind spirit, and quiet love for the Lord that blessed all who were around him. We can only imagine the Liberty reunion that is taking place now inside the gates of heaven!

“ I never saw David that he didn't smile and greet me. He sometimes did not remember my name, but always knew my face. He always said "soon as you smiled, I knew you". That was how David and I knew each other. With a smile.

“ Prayers of comfort to you all. I sure will miss my friend David. He had the sweetest smile and a great personality. Enjoyed visiting with him and an occasional cold one or two at our hang out in Milano. Go rest high on that mountain my friend. This is not goodbye, just see ya later❤️💔love,
Gina
