“ How sad David and I are to hear of Debbie's passing, but we know she loved Jesus and resides with our heavenly Father now. From back in the day, I remember Debbie as the little sister of my best friend - and how Linda and I would "sneak off" from her and Wanda; but, they always found us! We played many hours together, riding breakneck speed across a small gulley on the "trolley" and dressing up and playing pretend grown-ups. Such wonderful, happy memories. We shall miss you, dear Debbie. Our prayers are now for your beautiful family to find peace, comfort, and strength for the days ahead without you. In Christ's Love,
